PayPal limited the account after a payment review. The packet records the initial denial, the second-review timeline, and the ownership and transaction evidence gathered to address the remaining verification request.

2. User Statement

I am requesting a second review of the permanent limitation placed on my PayPal account. The account supported legitimate customer payments and routine supplier expenses. The attached limitation notice, support correspondence, transaction history, and identity record show that I own the account and that the reviewed activity was ordinary business activity. I respectfully request restored access or a specific explanation of any remaining verification requirement.
